

TUSCANY, UMBRIA AND A BIT OF LATIUM BY DRIVING A FERRARI

The tour will let you discover beautiful places such as Chianti with its hills and vineyards; art cities such as San Gimignano and Perugia; the countryside of Florence, Siena, Rome...

After picking up the Ferrari near to where its factory is based, you will start your one-week-tour driving south till Rome area.

PROGRAMME

Day 1 - Motors' Land

Land in Bologna. Private pick up at the airport and transfer to the accommodation in Modena, the town where Enzo Ferrari was born and started his great adventure. Modena is considered the capital of the so called Motors Land and also hosts Maserati factory. As regards to art, Modena's cathedral has been included by UNESCO in the list of Cultural Heritage of Humanity and the historical center is full of nice shops, cafés and restaurants. Overnight stay in Modena.

Upon request possibility of guided visit of the town.

Day 2 - From Ferrari home to Tuscany

Breakfast. Meeting and delivery of the car as agreed. Briefing about how to manage the car then get on board to reach Maranello and drive the dream-car at her home passing in front of Wind Tunnel designed by Renzo Piano and the Fiorano track where Ferrari pilots test the single-seater Formula 1 and the new born Ferraris. Admittance to Ferrari museum, constantly updated by new trophies, cars and memorabilia such as the office of Enzo Ferrari and his first cheque... Break at Ferrari Store in front of Ferrari factory for some official shopping then enjoy a tasteful lunch at one of the motors' restaurants of the area. After lunch, get on board to enjoy a panoramic route connecting Emilia and Tuscany, chosen in past times for famous car and bike races. Along the road several spots for nice photos such as the board sign remembering the historical car race Mille Miglia or, while approaching Florence, at the beautiful view of the town and its dome. Overnight stay in the countryside between Florence and Siena.

Day 3 – Chantishire

Breakfast. Enjoy the car driving through Chiantishire. The landscape features hills, fields, rows of vines and olive-groves and it looks still the same of the paintings of the 15th century paintings: dotted with farmhouses, villas, castles and turreted hamlets. In the 13th century, when struggles among one village and another were so often, a territory including more or less the small towns of Radda, Gaiole and Castellina was put together forming an alliance called "Lega del Chianti" (Chianti league) having a "gallo nero" (black cock) as its emblem. The "Gallo Nero" is nowadays the symbol of the "Consorzio del Chianti" (Chianti wine union). During your tour you may get the occasion to have a break in San Gimignano the nice town included by UNESCO in the World's Heritage list and famous thanks to its 14 ancient towers giving the town the nickname of "Manhattan of Middle Ages". Overnight stay in the countryside between Florence and Siena.

Upon request possibility of hot air balloon flights.

Day 4 – Towards Perugia and Assisi

Breakfast. From Tuscany you will reach Umbria bordering Trasimeno lake till the beautiful area of Perugia and Assisi, characterized by green hills and mountains, cities of art and small ancient villages such as Spello with its city walls and Roman remains or Montefalco standing on the top of a hill and renowned thanks to its Sagrantino wine. Among the specialities of the area to be remembered the precious white and black truffles. Overnight stay in Perugia - Assisi area.

Day 5 – Hills, art and relax

Breakfast. You may spend the day driving up and down the Umbrian hills having some breaks in art cities such as Assisi and Perugia; reaching Spoleto with its Romanesque cathedral, the Romans' remains, and the stunning aqueduct... Having a break in Deruta renowned for its ceramic tradition, Bettona with its mix of Etruscan and Medieval witnesses and Bevagna keeping important remains of the Roman civilization. A relaxing massage or sauna complete the day. Overnight stay in Perugia - Assisi area. Upon request possibility of guided visit of Assisi and Perugia; cooking class...

Day 6 – Towards Latium

Breakfast. Drive from Umbria to Latium, core of the ancient Roman Empire. Crossing the countryside the list of panoramic routes till the Tyrrhenian coast is endless. The coastal area between Tuscany and Latium was once inhabited by Etrurians, a mysterious civilization that has left important remains such as in Cerveteri and Tarquina characterized by round hills hiding monumental tombs decorated by rich paintings. Overnight stay on the Tyrrhenian coast.

Day 7 – Rome

Breakfast. Time at your disposal to explore the surrounding area, visiting the Etruscan remains, having a tour around Bracciano lake, or just relaxing at the seaside or by a massage or beauty treatment. Overnight stay on the Tyrrhenian coast. Upon request, possibility of reaching Rome by private transfer and possibility of guided tour of the town and its art treasures.
